“A word from your pastor.....”

Church Family,

In many areas of our lives, we find that we have limitations. There are limitations to how long we can go without drinking water, eating, sleeping, and breathing. We have other limitations as well. We have limitations of time and money. However, there is one thing that we have limitations on, but it does not have to be limited. . . faith. I read something recently and it brought me to a humbling realization. “The goal of faith is not limited to trusting God in the present. The goal of faith is trusting God in the future too”.

Faith is only limited by one thing. Faith is not limited by our sickness, sadness, frustrations, failures, and defeats. Consequently, those all require faith. Truly, faith is limited by just one. That one, is myself. The fact that we trust God is faith, but let us not limit our trust to just for today. Let’s trust Him that He has tomorrow as well. Trusting God’s providence over all things, especially tomorrow is where we find the word “hope” to come into our lives. Keep in mind what the Apostle Paul said in 1 Corinthians 13:13, “And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love”. The faith and hope that God is in control and is sovereignly reigning for His glory is what makes the hymn writer say, “strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow”. Have faith in God, not only for the yesterday and the here and now, but for tomorrow too.

*I love you,
YOUR Pastor*
