Samaritan’s Purse Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes:
 Be in prayer for everyone involved with spreading the gospel through shoeboxes.

Project Leader, Lisa Carter (580) 380-2719.

Church Family,

A person can learn a lot about themselves when they go through a trial in life. Trials come to us all. No one is immune! Some trials are brought on us by others and some trials are self-inflicted. Either way, a person learns a lot about themselves in a trial.

It is in these trials that the true nature of a church shines. When a loved one is suffering a trial, what kind of church will we be? You would not have to look far in Silo Baptist Church, because we have had our trials too. We have had members suffering trials of sickness, afflictions, death of loved ones, loss of jobs, and divorce. I am confident that Silo Baptist Church is a Galatians 6:1-2 church and that we truly love one another. As a church body, our job is to pray, evangelize, lift up the fallen, and glorify God in it all. We have members that need our prayers and support and I believe with all my heart that is what they are getting.

While we all know and agree, that it is a necessity to do ministry to reach the lost, I am certain that we can all equally agree that is an equal necessity to do ministry within the church too. We learn this from 2 Corinthians 1:1-11. I hope you will continue to take every opportunity to minister to others by reaching out, calling, writing a card, and praying without ceasing for those that need our comfort in the midst of their suffering. May the blessings and grace of our great God be upon you and your loved ones.

I Love You,
YOUR Pastor
